Ron Lynch Named Partner of Sanctuary Wealth Services
Firm Promotes Long-Time Wealth Management Executive

San Francisco, July 23, 2013 – Sanctuary Wealth Services, one of the nation’s leading providers of business support services for elite breakaway advisors, today announced that Ron Lynch has been named a partner in the firm.

Lynch joined Sanctuary in 2010 as Director of Advisor Recruiting.

“Ron Lynch has been a driving force in Sanctuary’s success in recruiting dynamic advisors,” said Jeff Spears, CEO and Managing Partner of Sanctuary Wealth Services. “As a former Wall Street sales executive, Ron has a terrific understanding of breakaway advisors and how to help them establish their own business and take full control of their future.”

Lynch has 23 years of experience in the financial services industry. Prior to joining Sanctuary, he has held various sales roles at Smith Barney, Chase Manhattan Bank and Bear Stearns.

Since 2010, six advisor teams have hired Sanctuary to support their independent business. They include Sanctuary Wealth Advisors Denver, Gordian Wealth Advisors, Three Bridge Wealth Advisors, Emerald Bay Wealth Management, Crosspoint Capital Management, and Mirador Capital Partners. Sanctuary’s platform supports three business models: Hybrid advisors compensated by fees and commissions, fee-only advisors, and advisor as portfolio manager.
