Bernie Notas Named Chief Financial Officer of Sanctuary Securities
Sanctuary Wealth Services Continues To Expand Business Team Supporting Elite Advisors

San Francisco, Aug. 20, 2012 – Sanctuary Wealth Services today announced that Bernie Notas, a financial services executive with more than 30 years of securities industry experience, has been named Chief Financial Officer of Sanctuary Securities, the firm’s registered broker-dealer.

Prior to working with Sanctuary, Notas served as Chief Financial Officer of BTIG, LLC, OffRoad Capital, Montgomery Securities, and Rooney Pace Group. Notas also was a member of the Board of Ellie Mae, Inc., a NYSE-traded company.

“Bernie Notas is a highly respected Chief Financial Officer whose experience and leadership will help Sanctuary continue to attract elite advisors to its platform,” said Keith Ogden, Chief Operating Officer of Sanctuary Wealth Services.

Sanctuary also announced the hiring of Jill DeMayo as Compliance Officer of Sanctuary Wealth Advisors LLC and Sanctuary Securities LLC. DeMayo, who has 15 years of experience in the financial services industry, will work with Compliance Officer Talia Brandt, who has been working with Sanctuary for the past three years.

“Jill is another valuable addition to Sanctuary, and her expertise expands our ability to serve our growing number of advisor teams,” Ogden said. “Sanctuary continues to hire experienced professionals who are dedicated to supporting advisors who want to build their practice and deliver outstanding service to clients.”
